Anay Tare

My name is Anay Tare! I am a young student passionate about learning new things in coding and breaking into the tech field. I love exploring the real world and experiencing new adventures.

About Me

Schooling: From nursery to 10th grade, I attended New Digamber Public School. For 11th and 12th grades, I studied at Rankers International School.

Current Studies: I am currently pursuing a BTech in CS-IT at SUAS Indore.

Future Plans: I plan to pursue a master's degree abroad and then join a top MNC or government organization in the AI research field to dive deeper into the subject.

Additional Info: I am deeply curious about how technology works, especially in areas like quantum computing, and I'm eager to learn more.

My Hobbies

- Watching cricket - I'm a cricket nerd, to summarize!
- Management - I run a Discord server with 6000 members and growing every day. It's fun to interact with the community, learn new things, and help it grow!
- Playing outdoor sports with friends or just hanging out with them.
- Playing online games (LOL).
